PELICANS TURN

Goodbred is Bumped Out of Box and Nemitz Fares Little Better-Pels Run Wild on Bags.

BY WILL HAMILTON

NEW ORLEANS, La, Aug 6.—There are some fighters who, when they beat the other fellow to the punch and get off in front, fight like champions. The Memphis and New Orleans clubs appear to be like this. Memphis got over the first wallop in the first game and soon had the Pels groggy. Thursday the Pels reversed the tables. Ro: Walker is seldom caught when his team gives him a two or three-run lead, and the Pels gave him five runs in the first two innings.

gave him five runs in the first two innings.

Tiny Geodbred, the largest of his species, arrived from a secuting trip in Florida just in time to get bumped for five singles in time to get bumped for five singles in the first inning and two in the second. Then Nemitz stepped in and absorbed the rest of the punishment. The slaughter was not as great as on the day before because both teams played good bail. The Fels, who had been unable to intrack themselves Wednesday returned to their normal stride and fielded in the tashion that has kept them at the top of the fielding column all the season.

A stranger wouldn't have thought that the team which won in such one-sided manner was a terribly crippied combination. "Cotton" Knaupp was out with his bruised finger. "Pug" Allen was out with a swellen ankle. This forced Ripperton to second base, with Torkelson, a pitcher, playing left, and Deberry, a catcher, playing right.

Allen will be out for sevaral days, perhaps, but Knaupp should be back in before this series is over.

The Features.

The Features.

As one of our amateur correspondents would say the feature of the game was the all-round good playing of the winding team, and so forth and so forth, in this case means the pitching of Walker, the base rouning of Larry Gilbert, the hitting of Old Hickory Deberry and a catching performance in the fourth inning by Bob Dowie There was another hit of work, too, that must not be left immentioned and unsung, in fact it should be indelibly inscribed in the archives of baseball. Hank Deberry and Hugh Bradley pulled a double steal, the devillah little daredevils did for a fact. We don't know where Catcher Bischoff was. We heard Bill Brennan say that he was succeeding Meyers as catcher after Meyers had first been announced, but Hish was absent somewhere, or at any rate Gilbert and Hand and Hugh made it look so. Gilbert stole second and third in the first inning and he swiped third again in the next inning.

Dowie's catch ranked next, so far as the unusual is concerned, to the steal of Hank and Hugh, because it was made in the grand sland. Griffin hit the foul and by all rights it should have fallen in one of the boxes in the left wing of the stand, but Dowie ran over, projected his mitt into the box and made a fair and square catch of it. A lady was sitting in this box and she moved just a bit to keep the ball from falling into her lap, and this enabled Dowie to make the catch. Bob thought it was mighty nice of the lady to move, especially as she appeared to be cheering for Memphis.

ABE KABAKOFF.

Memphis boxing fans are assured a flatic treat next Monday night when Abe Kabakoff, a local lightweight, will tie up with Arlos Fanning, of Kansas City, in an eight-round bout at the Southern Athletic club. Kabakoff is in good shape and is rounding out a week of strenuous training. Fanning is expected to arrive in Memphis Saturday, and work Sunday afternoon at the S.

The Chicks are in and outers. One day they look like money in the bank, and the next day they come back and closely resemble 30 cents' worth of dog meat.

This was the case in New Orleans. The Tribe went out on the first day and whaled the sox off the Pelicans But on the second day they left their batting eyes in the clubhouse and nearly went hitless against Dixle Walker, while the Birds fattened up their batting averages upon Tiny Goodbred and Clarence Nemitz Goodbred and Clarence Nemitz Goodbred rejoined the Tribe Thursday in time to get a lacing. He has been in Florida presumably looking for players, He brought no good tidings back with him.

Manager Jack Lewis of the Tribe will likely atart Oscar Tuero against the Pels in the third game of the series. The Chicks will meet the Pels on Saturday in the final, and then go to Mebile for four games.

FAST BALL CLUB

Billy Haack Has Gotten Together a High-Class Team for Sunday Game-Dyersburg Lineup Announced.

BY BOB PIGUE. Billy Haack, who has been getting together a fast ball club to meet the Dyersburg team at Russwood park Sunday, has succeeded in lining up some of the best talent in and around-Memphis. Haack says the game should prove one of the best of the year, and is confident that one of the largest crowds of the 1920 season will see the two outfits in action. The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock.

HERE'S LOCAL CLUB.

Haack has lined up the ollowing ball chub to take on the Dyersburg club:
Catchers—Stewart, Walters. Pitchers—Ray Cobert, Terry and Johnny Day, First Ease—Wade. Second Fase—Billy Claypool. Shortstop—Clasell. Third Base—Belote. Outfielders—Hayes, Handwerker, Marshall and Long.
It is more than likely that there will be some additional talent on hand so as to use in case the Dyersburg team will be some additional failent on hand so as to use in case the Dyersburg team gets out in front. Every cossible ef-fort is going to be made to take the measure of the fast-traveling Dyers-burgians, and it is realized that a good ball club is necessary.

The team that will meet the Dyers-burg club will have a practice session urg club will have a practice session Saturday.

THE VISITORS' LINEUP. Here's how the Dyersburg team is oing to stack up for the Sunday affray:

Catdhers—Block, Chapman, Pitchers—Beech, Winthro, Cooper, Mitch, Hart.
First Base—Quellmalz, Second Base—
Griffin Shortstop—Protino Third
Base—Hurt, Outfielders—Farmer, Hart, Mercer, Bougeno.
It may be seen from the Dyersburg lineup that they have a good ball club.
George Block, catcher, was with the Chicks for a time. He has been in the Western league and has been playing ball for many seasons. Pitcher Kay Beech had a tryout with Little Rock Lee Hart, pitcher and outfielder, is an old Kitty leaguer, and was with Chattanooga early in the season.

Dutch Quelimals is playing first base. He was formerly on Senter Raineg's Caruthersville, Mo., team. On second is Skin Griffin, a Paducah boy who has been playing good bail for a long time. On shortstep is Thempson Prothro, a Memphis boy, now a leading dentist in Dyersburg. He was a star on many Memphis teams for several seasons, and is having a fine year with the Dyersburgians. Jack Farmer, late of the Nashville Volunteers, is playing one of the outfield berths. Bud Mercer, another of the suburban positions. Bill Bougeno, also of Paducah, plays the remaining outer berth.

Tickets are on sale, and a record been at hard work.
